

Controversial Conversations and Dialogue

with Rachel Wahl, UVA

MAY 8

9–10:30

Mills 103

Supporting Students while Building Dialogue and Engagement (Staff)

If you are someone who has been thinking about how we can build dialogue and conversations on campus, please join with Professor Rachel Wahl from UVA to learn from her research on engaging students in controversial topics and times.

*Optional Lunch at 12:30

Register: <https://cglink.me/2dK/r1951700>

MAY 8

11–12:30

Mills 103

Addressing Controversy in Classroom Discussions (Faculty)

This workshop with Professor Rachel Wahl from UVA will support faculty in developing inclusive and respectful strategies for navigating challenging topics and fielding students' comments and concerns in classrooms and labs. Participants will spend time workshopping scenarios faculty encounter and strategies to address them.

*Optional Lunch at 12:30

Register: <https://cglink.me/2dK/r1951699>

MAY 8

3:45–5

Mills 103

Drop-in Time with Rachel Wahl to Bring Your Questions and Learn

Register: <https://cglink.me/2dK/r1951701>

Sponsored by the Office of Inclusion and Diversity and Baldwin Center for Learning and Teaching