

Nazi Propaganda Analysis

Standards: History: Knowledge, Evaluate Points of View

Assignment: Select one example of Nazi propaganda that we looked at in class. Analyze the example to create a written analysis of the propaganda. Your analysis should answer the following questions:

- What does the propaganda depict?
- What message is the propaganda trying to communicate?
- How could this propaganda have contributed to genocide during the Holocaust?
- Exceeds: What does historical context reveal about the propaganda?
 - Possible questions to consider: Where do the ideas in this propaganda come from? What was happening in the world at the time of the propaganda that informs our understanding of the propaganda? What role does the propaganda play in the Nazi plans for genocide?
- Exceeds: What are the similarities and differences between this example and other Nazi propaganda?

Your analysis should be a maximum of 400 words.

Rubric:

Target/Standard	4 - Exceeding	3 - Meeting	2 - Approaching
I can analyze Nazi propaganda to understand its messages and its role in genocide. History: Knowledge Evaluate Points of View	___ Analysis describes the propaganda, connecting specific and important details, such as color and symbols, to the analysis of the propaganda's message. ___ Analysis explains the message that the propaganda seeks to communicate and connects details in the propaganda to the messages. The analysis also explains similarities and differences between this propaganda and other Nazi propaganda. ___ Analysis explains how this propaganda could have contributed to genocide during the Holocaust. The analysis also uses historical context to explain the propaganda's role in genocide.	___ Analysis describes the propaganda. ___ Analysis explains the message that the propaganda seeks to communicate and connects details in the propaganda to the messages. ___ Analysis explains how this propaganda could have contributed to genocide during the Holocaust. ___ Analysis is clear and concise. It is 400 words or less.	___ Analysis does not describe the propaganda. ___ Analysis does not explain the message that the propaganda seeks to communicate or connect details in the propaganda to the messages. ___ Analysis does not explain how this propaganda could have contributed to genocide during the Holocaust. ___ Analysis is not clear and concise. It is longer than 400 words.

Due: A Day (Blocks 1 and 2): Tuesday, January 24

B Day (Blocks 4 and 5): Wednesday, January 25